

A NOTE FROM VIVIAN OTTO

Have you ever visited a retirement community -- especially Asbury in Gaithersburg, MD? If you would like to, call me, Vivian Otto (301) 216-5299, and I will arrange a luncheon and tour. Did you know that there are 15 of us presently members of CCUMC living here? And there are some who were members and have their membership elsewhere now.

Some of us who live here are still able to attend and participate in CCUMC activities -- attending the Friendship/Fellowship adult class; enjoying the Monday Fun Day (PALS), under Linda Ellinwood's direction; and attending Sunday morning worship. Those who are not able to travel 30-40 minutes to and then from church for physical reasons, attend services held here on the Asbury Campus in a lovely Chapel or in Kindley Assistant Living or Health Care Center.

Those who live here now are Carol Blair, Bill and Medie Snape, Carol and Scott Brewer, Peg Matzen, Jeanette Crockett, Pat Hilmoe, Marjorie and Rob Mills, Connie Cole, Beth Thornton, Dottie McCutcheon, Arlene Walsh, and me. And I know of two couples getting their homes ready for sale to come to Asbury. Some past members living here are Betty Fiske, Jim and Mary Mehring, Mary and Warren Ebinger (visitation pastor for a while), Mary Holmberg, Ray and Bess Maloy, and Nancy Vert.

Pat Hilmoe and I are on the resident Travel Committee. I do weeklong trips and recently led a group on a cruise from Charleston to Baltimore. September finds 25 going to the Finger Lakes for 4 days, and in November we are going to New York City for 3 days. We have been to many places on day trips led by Pat and others on the Committee.

Through our Keese School, outstanding speakers are brought to the campus two nights a week. There are all kinds of physical exercise groups, gardens for individual development, etc. There are over 100 resident-run clubs and programs.

Come and visit. It's a great life. And women ... no more cooking dinners!!! Men ... no more shoveling snow or mowing grass. What more can you ask?
